

A) JOB PURPOSE

The Senior Structural Designer is accountable for producing and maintaining structural design deliverables (including, but not limited to, drawings, BOM's, 3D models & sketches) in accordance with industry standards, codes and client specifications, and within the timescale and budget set out by the Lead Structural Designer.

B) RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of the Senior Structural Designer shall include, but are not limited to, those contained in the following statements:

- Produce structural deliverables in accordance with industry standards, codes and client specifications.
- Check structural deliverables in accordance with industry standards, codes and client specifications.
- Prepare & check material take-offs and bill of materials.
- Undertake offshore surveys and create survey reports.
- Provide technical input during detailed engineering of projects if requested.
- Establish good working relationships and communication with discipline leads and department managers

Undertake any other general duties that may be requested The list of duties is not exhaustive in any way and may change at any time.

C) JOB KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

Mandatory

- 7 Years' experience in the Oil & Gas/Petrochemical industry and ONC in engineering or equivalent or;
- 6 Years' experience in Oil & Gas/Petrochemical industry and HNC in Mechanical Engineering or;
- Ability to demonstrate previous experience in the use of AutoCAD 2D and 3D software
- Must have good working knowledge of industry codes and standards

Preferred

- Relevant Offshore Mandatory Requirements (Survival, Medical, MIST, EBS etc.)

JOB DESCRIPTION: Senior Structural Designer

E) HOURS OF WORK & REMUNERATION

- This position is based in Dyce, Aberdeen.
- Salary – competitive and dependant on skills and experience
- Hours of work are 40 per week.

F) APPLICATIONS

- Applicants must hold eligibility to work in the UK and UKCS prior to application.
- Please submit all applications (covering letter & CV) via email to Angela.Duthie@gegroun.com
- Closing Date: Friday 28th September 2018.